

Supporting Our Veterans' Families

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

LEGACY

OUR MISSION

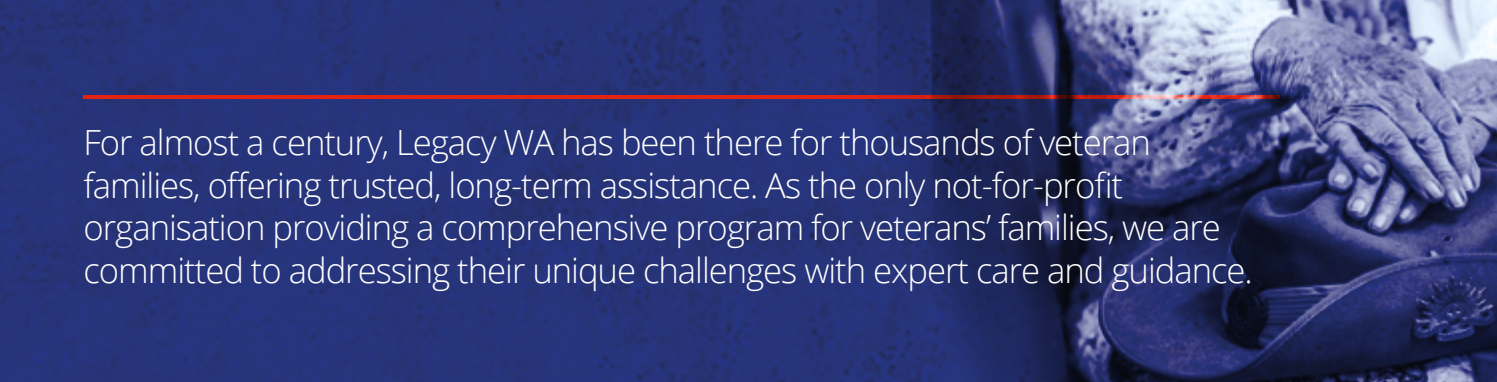

We care for veterans' families affected by their Defence service and facilitate connections that foster a strong and connected veteran community.

OUR DELIVERY MODEL

Legacy WA's service delivery model creates measurable, transformative outcomes for veteran families, focusing on improving mental health, financial stability, and community connections. By providing practical, person-centred support, our programs help reduce reliance on welfare systems while fostering resilience and independence.

For almost a century, Legacy WA has been there for thousands of veteran families, offering trusted, long-term assistance. As the only not-for-profit organisation providing a comprehensive program for veterans' families, we are committed to addressing their unique challenges with expert care and guidance.

Intake, Assessment, and Case Management Program

Our case managers work closely with each family to assess their unique needs and provide personalised support. By leveraging our strong partnerships and collaborative networks, we connect families with specialised services to ensure they receive timely and essential care.

Financial Support and Wellbeing

Legacy WA supports financial wellness through expert guidance and support, helping veterans' families achieve long-term independence. We assist through referrals, emergency relief, homelessness solutions, and education support grants.

Respite and Camp Programs

Since 1957, Legacy WA's Busselton Camp has provided respite for veteran families. Tailored camp programs for women, youth, families, and individuals living with disabilities encourage independence, resilience, and the formation of meaningful peer connections.

Community Engagement and Social Connections

For nearly 100 years, Legacy WA has supported veteran families through practical aid and social programs. We promote wellbeing by fostering friendships, organising events, and hosting group activities to help younger families build support networks. Our Laurel Program specifically assists war widows and veteran partners, offering regular meetings and social outings to combat isolation and loneliness.

Legatee Peer Support and Referral Program

Legacy WA's dedicated group of volunteers offer peer support and referrals, helping to strengthen families' resilience through community engagement. Their guidance assists families in navigating challenges, providing mentorship and connecting them to vital resources.
